Reply

Applicants would like to thank the Examiner for allowing claims 6, 22, 24-26, 30, 36, and 38-41.

Objections

The specification was objected to as containing a computer program listing consisting of more than three hundred lines.

As suggested by the Examiner, the specification has been amended to remove the computer program listing submitted originally with the application as a paper appendix. The specification has been amended to include a reference to the computer program listing appendix which is submitted concurrently with this reply in duplicate on compact disk. In accordance with §1.52(e), Applicants submit that the two copies are identical. Further, applicants submit that the compact disks are IBM-PC formatted and are readable by MS-DOS, MS-Windows, Macintosh, and Unix systems. A list of files, with their names, sizes in bytes, and dates of creation, is shown in the table below. Please note that some files were created in 2006 but only include the contents of the programs as submitted in the original application. Therefore, Applicants submit that no new matter has been added.
